

What is this Session about?

- Medical Experts will share the latest information on COVID-19, variants, testing, and the COVID-19 vaccine
- Caregivers of children/youth with disabilities can engage with medical experts in a Q&A session to get their questions answered
- Caregivers will receive information and resources on how to work with their children on staying safe and healthy during the pandemic

Date: Thursday, October 7, 2021

Time: 1:30 pm – 3:00 pm

Location: Virtual

Cost: Free, but registration is required

Register: <https://bit.ly/3CEz53H>

Speakers: Robert W. Freneck Jr., MD, Infectious Diseases
Director, Vaccine Research Center, Cincinnati Children's Hospital

Patricia Manning-Courtney, MD, Developmental and Behavioral Pediatrics
Chief of Staff, Cincinnati Children's Hospital

Kara Ayers, PhD, Developmental and Behavioral
Pediatrics
Assistant Professor

Rena Sorensen, PhD, Behavior Safety Team
Staff Psychologist

Questions? Contact Jennifer Walsh, jennifer.walsh@cchmc.org